Acceptance of Previous Meeting Minutes:

A motion made by Robert Avery and seconded by Dave Standing to accept the minutes of the February 9, 2017 meeting was carried.

Secretary Report:

Hoping to get more information up on the website including past minutes. Jonathan Navagh will assist in getting our annual election of officers conducted electronically for next year.

Treasurer Report:

Mike Venturo reported verbally. All of the 2016 accounting has been completed.

Past Presidents Report:

John Gillen noted that our affiliation with ACSM should be removed from the letterhead.

Vice President's Report:

Jared Ransom reported that a program may be put together regarding research at the MCCO by Dave Zacharias. April 20th is the next meeting date to take place at the 40 & 8 Club.

Associates Report:

Jonathan Navagh reported that our Google calendar is now up and running. National Surveyors Week is March 19-25. A program will take place Friday at 2 classes in the Pittsford School District.

History Report:

John Gillen indicated his dad had just turned 90 last month.

Ethics Committee:

Dave Standing noted the committee had just met today. More information will be forthcoming.

Nominations Committee:

There was no report but it is hoped that Daryl Moser will be assisting in putting this together.

Annual Picnic:

It was noted that Roy Garfinkel will be handling arrangements this year.

Old Business:

Scott Measday noted that the votes on the petition to hold a re-vote on the Standards has slowed down. 40 votes had been cast with 15 yea and 25 nay.

There being no further business to come before the meeting, it was adjourned by Vice President Ransom at 6:52 PM.

A 1 CE hour Webinar titled "Subdivision Layout Concepts for Surveyors" from NYSAPLS took place following the meeting.
